RULES FOR PARENT MEETINGS AND PICTURE CONSENT

The objective of Catechesis, and of the life of every human being, is to become Saints and to live in the presence and love of God. Therefore, we commit to:

a) Pray. Individually and as a family. Every day!. Participate in the Holy Mass every Sunday and Holy days of obligation.

b) Parents, assisted by godparents, are the main teachers of the faith for their children. Faith and morals are not transmitted in just a couple of hours a week or a month. Evangelization is the duty of every christian. By enrolling children in parish activities, parents and godparents commit to transmitting the faith to them through their words and actions. This means that, among other things they will:

1. Teach them the importance of an intimate and dynamic relationship with God through their own example in prayer, Bible study, and love for the Eucharist;
2. Instill in them the virtue of hope (trusting that failure is not the end of the world), giving them an example of how to forgive and genuinely ask for forgiveness; and
3. Help them develop their conscience and moral strength by valuing people and things in the correct order (God first above all else).

c) Catechesis never ends, even for adults. We can always know more about our God and about ourselves as God's children. We should look for opportunities to learn and get closer to Him. Parents' meetings should be understood as one of these opportunities.

d) It is essential to participate productively in parent meetings, for the good of our children and ourselves. For meetings to be fruitful, you need an atmosphere of collaboration. We are all trying to get to heaven. Let's help each other.

e) Our catechists are volunteers who seek to help their children. If a problem arises, you should speak in private with those responsible (catechists, coordinators, priest), and not impede the meetings unnecessarily, thus respecting the time of the other parents.

f) If you have any constructive suggestions on how to improve catechesis or meetings, or if there are some topics that you would like to discuss, please mention them to those in charge. Don't let your contribution go to waste without benefiting others.

g) I give my full consent to Saint Ambrose's Church or to whom it assigns, for the use of photographs and / or videos taken during classes, activities and ceremonies organized by the Parish, by the catechists and / or group of Parents, in order to be used for educational, advertising, presentation and / or dissemination purposes through newspapers, the Internet or other means of communication. I fully authorize, and waive any claim or compensation for the use of such photos and videos by the Parish, catechists and / or families
